Correction to: Langenbeck's Archives of Surgery
<https://doi.org/10.1007/s00423-022-02638-x>

The original version of this article unfortunately contained a small mistake on page 11, the in-text citation [17] should be changed to [14].

The corrected in-text citation is shown below:

Heimann et al. indicated that number of bowel resections prior to hernia repair predicted recurrence of IH [14].

The original article has been corrected.
